

Almighty God, You chose the Virgin Mary to be the mother of Your only Son. Grant that we, who are redeemed by His blood, may share with her in the glory of Your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen. (Collect for the Festival of St. Mary, Mother of Our Lord, August 15)

I mentioned in a recent sermon that a visitor told me, with sadness, that his pastor, in a church of a different denomination, said that the Virgin Birth of Christ is an unnecessary teaching, and it's not important to believe the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds when they state that Christ "was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary" and "incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary." I told him he should ask, "What else do we say in the creeds that we don't really believe anymore?"

I did not mention the specific denomination, since I hoped that this heresy was only a quirk of that particular pastor. However, the visitor has since sent me a link to their denominational website, where this heresy is publicly, brazenly stated. The denomination is the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and the link is: www.elca.org/What-We-Believe/New-or-Returning-to-Church/Dig-Deeper/Virgin-Birth.aspx.

They ostensibly give "equal time" to "both sides of the issue." However, giving equal time to heresy is not a virtue. Paul says in Ephesians 4:14 that we should, "no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming." And Hebrews 13:9 says, "Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings."

In addition, from a theological, historical, and basic linguistic standpoint, there simply is not another "side" of this issue worthy of consideration. Liberal "scholars" claim that the Hebrew word almah in Isaiah 7:14 does not mean "virgin" but simply "a young woman of marriageable age," supposedly with no indication one way or the other as to her virginity. Unfortunately, the translation "young woman" in this verse has worked its way into several modern Bible versions. However, the contention that "a young woman of marriageable age" does not indicate physical virginity ignores that the punishment for adultery in Old Testament times was being stoned to death (Deuteronomy 22:20-21). In that culture, "a young woman of marriageable age" was either a virgin or she was dead!

Besides Isaiah 7:14, almah is found six other times in the Hebrew Old Testament (Genesis 24:43; Exodus 2:8; Psalm 68:25; Proverbs 30:19; Song of Songs 1:3, 6:8). None of these occurrences in any way indicates a young woman who is not a virgin, and the fact of physical virginity is obvious in the first two instances. Also, in two places, one of them being Isaiah 7:14, the Greek version of the Old Testament, the Septuagint, translated almah with parthenos, the Greek word for a virgin in the technical sense. So, it seems the Septuagint translators understood almah to mean a physical virgin. And in Ugaritic, the more common Semitic word for virgin, bethwlah, is used in poetic parallelism with almah. In short, the Hebrew words for "virgin" and "a young woman of marriageable age" are synonyms, both indicating physical virginity.

The ultimate objective of this campaign to replace "virgin" in Isaiah 7:14 with "young woman" is to deny the validity of the New Testament's application of this verse to the conception and birth of Jesus (Matthew 1:22-23). However, despite the pretentious posturing of the ELCA and other critics, both Isaiah 7:14 and Matthew 1:22-23, as well as Luke 1:27, clearly state that Mary was indeed a virgin when she miraculously “conceived by the Holy Spirit.” In 1 Timothy 1:7, Paul passes judgment on such so-called “scholars” who reject the teachings of the Bible: “They do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm.”

After ostensibly giving “equal time” to “both sides of the issue,” the ELCA finally come to the quite shocking and really sarcastic conclusion: “When we confess in the Apostles’ Creed that Jesus was ‘conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary’ . . . we are not making a gynecological assertion.”

I am absolutely flabbergasted that this is actually stated so blatantly and publicly on the ELCA web site. This is the most horrible blasphemy against our Lord, as well as the Blessed Virgin, and St. Joseph. Consider for example the verses below, which clearly indicate that Mary was indeed a virgin in the “gynecological” sense:

Matthew 1:24-25: — “Joseph took Mary home as his wife, but he had no union with her until she gave birth to a son.”

Volume 7

Number 5

Luke 1:34-35 — “Then Mary said to the angel, ‘How can this be, since I do not know a man?’ And the angel answered and said to her, ‘The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you; therefore the Holy One who is to be born will be called the Son of God.’”

In the Bible, the expression “to know” is often used for sexual relations, and so most modern translations, such as the New International Version and New Revised Standard Version, translate Mary’s words in Luke 1:34 as, “How can this be, since I am a virgin?” (NRSV)

The ELCA’s bald assertion, “When we confess in the Apostles’ Creed that Jesus was ‘conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary’ . . . we are not making a gynecological assertion,” has absolutely no basis in either Scripture, church history, or even basic etymology.

In John 9:29, the enemies of Jesus sneer: “As for this fellow, we don’t even know where he comes from.” That is generally understood as questioning Jesus’ parentage, the ancient equivalent of calling him a bastard. It is shocking that some who profess to be Christians have now joined Jesus’ enemies in this very blasphemous insult.

However, Paul prophesied such turning from the faith in 2 Timothy 4:3-4, “For the time will come when men will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths.” And Peter warns in 2 Peter 2:1-2, “There will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the sovereign Lord who bought them—bringing swift destruction on themselves. Many will follow their shameful ways and will bring the way of truth into disrepute.”

It is ironic and particularly sad that a supposed Lutheran church body would cast doubt on the Virgin Birth, for Martin Luther himself commented very pointedly, almost prophetically, on this very issue:

“It is an article of our faith that, ‘I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary.’ Women call it ‘becoming pregnant’; the article of faith calls it ‘conceived.’ Mary’s impregnating or conception was by the agency of the Holy Spirit. This article of faith must forever remain a part of Christian doctrine, a truly excellent, wonderful article of faith, against which, first of all, the devil contends, and then, also, all those who side with the devil. We Christians are called upon to believe and to confess a teaching which by the world is considered to be rank foolishness.

“From the standpoint of reason, it does indeed appear to be a foolish concept for Christians to believe and confess. Women, no matter how high or low their station, become pregnant in only one way, namely, as is written in Genesis 1:27-28. But, with Mary, God made an exception, something that had never happened before in the world, or would ever again happen as long as the world endures. She conceived a Child and became a mother not by virtue of a man, but by the Holy Spirit. Preposterous to human reason, and to every thinking person! And the more learned and wise they are, the more foolish they find it that Christians believe and confess this, something so totally unacceptable and impossible to human reason!

“If you’re going to be a Christian, you will believe and do things which other people do not believe or do. Yes, I’ll have to appear odd and strange to other people who are vexed and offended because of my faith. That’s the situation here. I’m to believe that Mary, a virgin, is pregnant, and will become a mother. This sounds foolish and impossible. Nevertheless, it is true: God accomplished something unique with her, Mary was pregnant, became a mother, and yet remained a chaste virgin!” (First Sermon for The Annunciation of Our Lord, House Postils, Vol. 3)

Pastor Kevin Vogts

We rejoiced to welcome 23 new members, who joined Holy Cross during the first quarter of 2009, to our family of faith at our New Member Sunday on April 19. Interest has been expressed in another possible Adult Information Class. This class is about ten one-hour sessions, focusing on the teachings of Scripture as confessed by the Lutheran Church. There is no pre-commitment to join either Holy Cross or the Lutheran Church. If you are interested in Adult Information Class, or if you are already Lutheran and would like your membership transferred to Holy Cross, please contact Pastor Vogts (232-9117, pastorvogts@longlines.com).

Kansas City Lutheran Concert at Holy Cross April 24

Holy Cross is hosting a Sioux City area concert of sacred music by the handbell and vocal choirs and band of Lutheran High School of Kansas City on Friday, April 24 at 7:00pm. Their Spring Tour will also take them to performances at LCMS congregations in Black Hawk and Rapid City, South Dakota, Omaha, Nebraska, and Concordia University, Seward, Nebraska.

The handbell choir is under the direction of Paula Meier, sister of Pastor Vogts. Previous members of this group have gone on to tour internationally with the Alleluia Ringers of Concordia University Wisconsin.

Our thanks to all the members of Holy Cross who generously offered to host students and chaperones in their homes, or donated rooms at the Country Inn. Thanks also to the Women in Mission group for hosting the dinner for the choir and reception following, and all those who donated food.

Bring your family to this free, uplifting concert!

Church Picnic June 6

Everyone is invited to an old-fashioned Holy Cross Church Picnic on Saturday, June 6. It will be held at the Izaak Walton League facilities on the shores of McCook Lake. Take North Shore Drive west just past Dakota Valley High School/Middle School, turn left onto West Shore Drive and go south about ½ mile. The Izaak Walton League is on the left, just east of the Adams Nature Center.

Holy Cross members Ryan Dial and Joey Schroeder plan to have their boats on the lake for members' enjoyment. The boating fun will begin about 1:00pm. You can come anytime during the afternoon. The picnic itself will be for supper, beginning about 5:00pm. It will be potluck style, with hamburgers, hot dogs, and buns provided. Bring along outdoor games, balls, frisbees, etc. Also, children up to age 15 can fish without a license. Others need a South Dakota license.

Plan now to come enjoy this fun day at the lake!

At our New Member Sunday on April 19 we formally welcomed about 23 new members who joined Holy Cross during the first quarter of 2009. Following the service we will had a reception and extended fellowship hour in the Gathering Room.

Midweek Vespers will continue on Wednesdays at 7:00pm through May 13. The following week, instead of a service on Wednesday, we will have a special service with Holy Communion for Ascension Day, on Thursday, May 21, at 7:00pm. (Ascension Day is 40 days after Easter Sunday—based on Acts 1:3—and thus always falls on a Thursday.)

This special service will conclude our Midweek Vespers services for the summer months. Following the Ascension Day service there will be an Ice Cream Social. Everyone is invited to celebrate Ascension Day with this special worship service and fellowship.
